

Implementation plan

Vision—Amplify our arts and culture to make New Zealand a creative powerhouse with global reach

Strategic Pillars

Investing for maximum impact	Maximising value for New Zealand from the creative and cultural sectors through the Crown investment in Arts, Culture and Heritage and wider government investment.
Nurturing talent	Enhancing New Zealand’s creative and cultural talent pipeline and supporting sustainable career opportunities.
Reducing barriers to growth	Modernising and streamlining Government regulation so it enables the cultural sectors to thrive.

2030 targets

- The economic contribution of the arts and creative sectors grows to at least $22 billion (of GDP), with a focus on cultural exports and tourism.
- A 10% increase in the number of New Zealanders engaging with New Zealand arts, culture, and heritage.
- 5,000 more people working in the creative and cultural sectors.

Investing for maximum impact

Maximising value for New Zealand from the creative and cultural sectors through the Crown investment in Arts, Culture and Heritage and wider government investment.

1.1—Streamline and simplify central government funding for the creative and cultural sectors to make accessing government funding easier and less resource intensive. 	Simplify CNZ funding support for cultural organisations and groups, including improving access to existing multi-year support and introducing simpler and more streamlined application and reporting processes.	CNZ (lead)	2025–26
	Where viable, focus on a more streamlined approach to funding community arts organisations and creative spaces and exploring options to join up funding from different agencies that support the same outcomes.	MCH (lead) MSD, Health New Zealand, MoE, DIA, MPP, Arts Access Aotearoa, Creative Spaces Network	2025–28
1.2—Leverage alternative funding sources for the sector to support sector sustainability and provide more jobs and opportunities for creative practitioners. 	Increase philanthropic and wider private investment in the creative and cultural sectors, using lessons learned from previous initiatives.	CNZ, IRD, DIA	2025–28
	Work with Resale Royalties Aotearoa (the Artist Resale Royalty collection agency) to set up a cultural fund comprising declined and unclaimed royalties from the scheme, which will be reinvested to support artists’ career sustainability.	Resale Royalties Aotearoa (lead), MCH	2025–2030
	Establish reciprocal arrangements with overseas countries operating resale royalty schemes, with an immediate focus on the 27 European Union member countries, so New Zealand artists will receive royalty payments when their work is sold in these overseas art markets.	MCH (lead), MFAT, Resale Royalties Aotearoa	2025–26
	Explore alternative funding options for regional cultural facilities, including additional Crown funding mechanisms or other cost recovery models.	MCH (lead), Treasury	2025–2030
1.3—Work across government to enable the creative and cultural sectors to support social outcomes, for example providing support for people experiencing mental health challenges and those at risk of entering the youth justice system. 	Work across government to advocate for the creative and cultural sectors to support social outcomes, consistent with the government’s social investment approach.	MCH (lead), MoH, Corrections, Oranga Tamariki, MSD, Whaikaha, MPP, Arts Access Aotearoa	2025–2030
	Work across government to ensure social sector funding eligibility criteria is designed in a way that is inclusive of cultural organisations with proven delivery success.	MCH (lead), Arts Access Aotearoa	2025–2030
